PALACIO DE VILLAPANES

SEVILLA, SPAIN

CoolRooms Palacio de Villapanés, the 18th century Sevillian palace is protected as an asset of interest of the city, and restored as a hotel in 2009, is one of the most authentic accommodations in Seville and, thanks to its interior design, services and the exclusive and private experience it offers to its guests, now receives the highest category as a grand luxury hotel.

“It is the perfect fusion of history, pleasure and innovation”, Miguel Ardid, President of CoolRooms Hotels defines CoolRooms Palacio de Villapanés. The Sevillian hotel, located a few steps from the historic Santa Cruz neighborhood, is the best accommodation for the contemporary traveler looking to discover the traditions of Seville and enjoy the treasures of the city.

It received the distinction of 5 Star Grand Luxury, the highest category as a luxury hotel that exists and that adds to the recent Michelin Key that recognizes the hotel as one of the best nationally.

Changes implemented by the requirements demanded by the 5-star Gran Lujo distinction that join a new air in its interior design through a project led by Silvia Gancedo-Rodriguez, Head of Product Design at CoolRooms Hotels. Palacio de Villapanés abandons the dark velvets to introduce the light and colors of Seville and modernizes without losing sight of its rich history and cultural heritage with an important focus on sustainability, design and meticulous attention to architectural details. A philosophy that is in line with CoolRooms Hotels' vision: to offer a luxury experience that respects the past and adapts to the needs of the modern guest.

The hotel's 50 rooms have been carefully redesigned to optimize natural lighting that create a warm and cozy atmosphere that perfectly complements the high ceilings and large windows. The furniture has been renovated with the exception of some original pieces that were reupholstered, such as chairs and sofas. Among the new furniture, Gancedo-Rodriguez has incorporated desks in all rooms, in the more stately suites, all with a functional design that ensures a comfortable workspace for all guests. In addition, it has incorporated elements that add a touch of fun and dynamism, such as poufs with retro prints and modern pieces made of high-quality materials. www.palaciovillapanes.com
