

THE CITY

MAGAZINE

ISSUE 126

APRIL 2018

ELECTRIC DREAMS

THE FUTURE OF FOUR WHEELS
AT THE GENEVA MOTOR SHOW

BREITLING REBRANDED

THE AVIATION WATCH SPECIALIST
SETS A NEW FLIGHT PATH

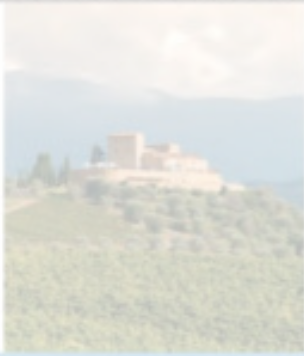

CHAIN REACTION

HOW MEN'S JEWELLERY MADE
IT INTO THE BOARDROOM

Speeding into SUMMER

Chasing the sun in the latest superyachts & hottest hypercars

Around the World

Escape the rat race with the latest in luxury travel

WORDS: DAVID TAYLOR & MELISSA EMERSON

PHOTOS: GUY LAWRENCE & JESSICA SPRENGER

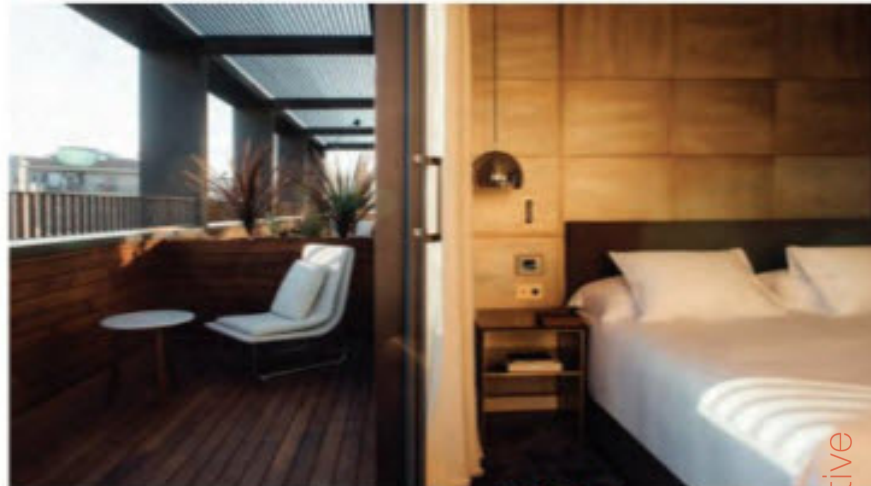

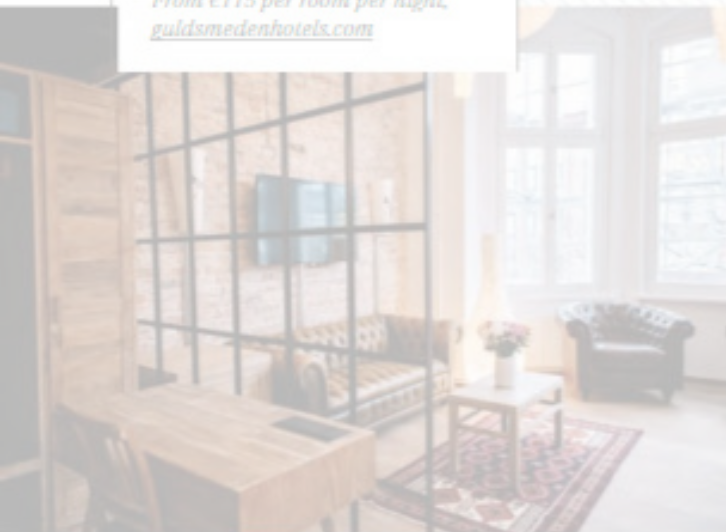

CASTELLO DI VELONA

Take in 360-degree views of typical Tuscan wine country from this hilltop hotel – a former military fortress dating from the 11th century. Opt for a Castle room with vaulted ceilings and oak beams or the more modern Sunset wing. The spa makes use of the natural mineral springs in the Val d'Orcia region, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. From €495 per night, sih.com

LULU GULDSMEDEN

Scandi hotel group Guldsmeden is expanding into Germany, with an 81-room outpost in Berlin. All of the cosy rooms have a different design and its restaurant, Sæson, crafts modern Nordic cuisine with organic, seasonal farm produce. From €115 per room per night, guldsmedenhotels.com

ALMANAC BARCELONA

Almanac enjoys top billing steps away from the luxury of Barcelona's Passeig de Gràcia, and the hotel reflects this, with grey and gold tones and Ibizan white marble bathrooms. More openings are planned for Budapest, Prague and Vienna. From €450 per room per night, almanachotels.com

Kyocreative