ON YOUR (ELECTRIC) BIKE

Ever tried an electric bike? You may never want to use pedal power alone again. Electric (as well as normal) bikes are available to rent from Port Bike Mallorca, perfect for exploring the city, but make sure you take a guide along too. Two hours cycling without the effort, plus happy chat and a great insight into the life of a Mallorquin, perhaps Alvaro, who doubles as a tennis pro and a university student in term time, makes a tour with a difference. +34 971 781 512; portbikemallorca.com

TEN REASONS WHY I LOVE

Sant Francesc Hotel Singular, Palma

- 1 Just 15 minutes from the airport yet in the heart of the old town...
- 2 ... right next to the Basilica Sant Francesc, with its lovely cloisters and delicately carved façade.
- 3 The artful, elegant transformation of a 19th-century house into a 42-room hotel: a modern vibe in a period shell.
- 4 The original central courtyard, with its enclosed glass and wood first-floor gallery.
- 5 The calm, almost sepulchral atmosphere. Come here for tranquility, not a party.
- 6 The wall in my bedroom that slides back to reveal a sleek bathroom.
- 7 The silkiest of Egyptian cotton bed linen and softest of pillows.
- 8 Waking to the muffled sound of church bells announcing the hour.
- 9 Complimentary welcome drinks and a dip in the pool on the rooftop terrace.
- 10 Lolling on a sunlounger and picking at sushi with Palma's magisterial cathedral in full view.
