A COUNTRYSIDE GETAWAY

Nestled within 40ha of countryside in the Pla de Mallorca, Finca Serena is 20 minutes away from Palma or the finest beaches and coves of the island. The delicate scent of olive trees greets guests as they walk through the hotel grounds with rippling hills and dramatic peaks as far as the eye can see. The 25 calm, comfortable rooms and suites are an elegant reflection of the great outdoors with sublime scenery just outside the windows. That sense of bringing the outside in extends to the gastronomy too as own-grown produce provides the base for the menus here. The hotel even has a stand-alone luxury villa for those travelling with an entourage. An insider tip: Speak to the hotel staff about arranging yacht, boat or even hot-air balloon trips to explore the island in pure luxury. Visit www.slh.com

Moon Bar is one of the most popular places in Bangkok to get a drink

NEW MOON RISING

Following an extensive makeover, the legendary rooftop destination, Moon Bar, perched on Banyan Tree Bangkok, has reopened. The highly acclaimed bar—which shares the hotel's 61st-floor rooftop sky zone with Vertigo Restaurant—underwent a complete design overhaul with stunning new features and an extraordinary repositioning to the opposite side of its rooftop perch. The ground-up architectural transformation includes a dramatic diamond-form bar as well as the Moon Walk, a glass “bridge” from which guests can soak in the spectacular cityscape. Guests can expect fresh cocktails on the menu too, to match the new look. Visit banyanree.com
