CATCH OF THE DAY

A picturesque historic fishing village in Norway's Lofoten archipelago, Nusfjord Village & Resort's guest accommodations are authentic rorbuer (fishermen's cabins) dating back to the late 19th century. This spring, Nusfjord will host Swedish chef Niklas Ekstedt (of Michelin-starred Stockholm restaurant Ekstedt), for a culinary experience for 50 guests, which will include a fishing trip, foraging, seaweed gathering and open-fire cooking. 28-31 May. From €4,870, nusfjord.com

ETERNAL FLAME

Hand-poured in Derbyshire using 100 per cent natural plant-based wax made from coconut oil and rapeseed oil, Toorak candles are designed to capture the essence of a destination. From the peony, rose and smoky oud blend reminiscent of Ubud, to the pine, eucalyptus and musk of Tromsø, relive your travels through these unique scents. £27, toorakcandleco.com

STATUS SYMBOL

Lito celebrated its 25th anniversary with Cosmic Guardians, a collection of 14 scarabs set in 18-carat gold with diamonds and gemstones, representing rebirth and renewal. Each piece comes with a white porcelain "habitat," created by Athens-based sculptor Diana Alexander, to display the piece when not worn. POA, litofinejewelery.com
